

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

Sensory Map

St Cecilia's Hall: Ground Floor

Good to know:

- The flooring changes throughout. It can be shiny or creaky.
- There are brightly lit wall panels with information.
- There are small but bright up-lights beside the seating in the Education Room.
- It may be noisy or crowded during concerts or teaching. Staff will inform you of scheduled events.
- The brass instrument collection is shiny, reflective and casts dramatic shadows, making depth perception difficult.
- There are pull-out drawers in the gallery with videos and activities that make noises.
- This area is often popular with children.

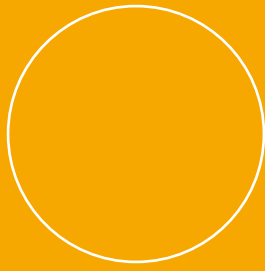

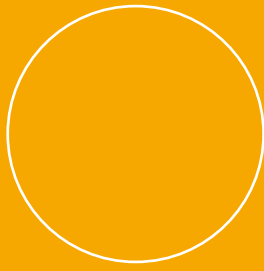

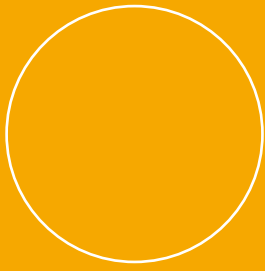

Key

- Information Desk
- Toilet, Female
- Toilet, Male
- Toilet, Unisex
- Toilet, Accessible
- Stairs
- Lift
- Wheelchair Access
- Staff Area
- Way Out
- Hands on activities

	Low	Medium	High
Noise	Often Quiet	Some noise	Can be loud
People	Few people	Some people	Busy place
Lighting	Low lighting	Medium lighting	Bright lighting
Other	Visual stimulation	Strong smell	Staff

Sensory Map

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

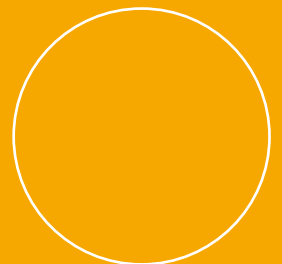

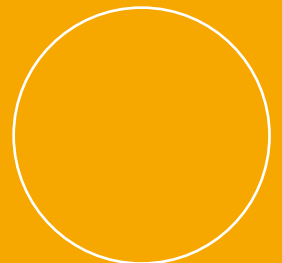

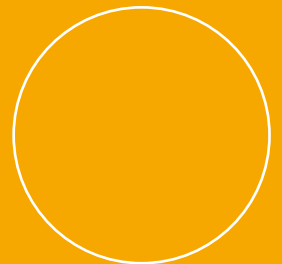

Sensory Map

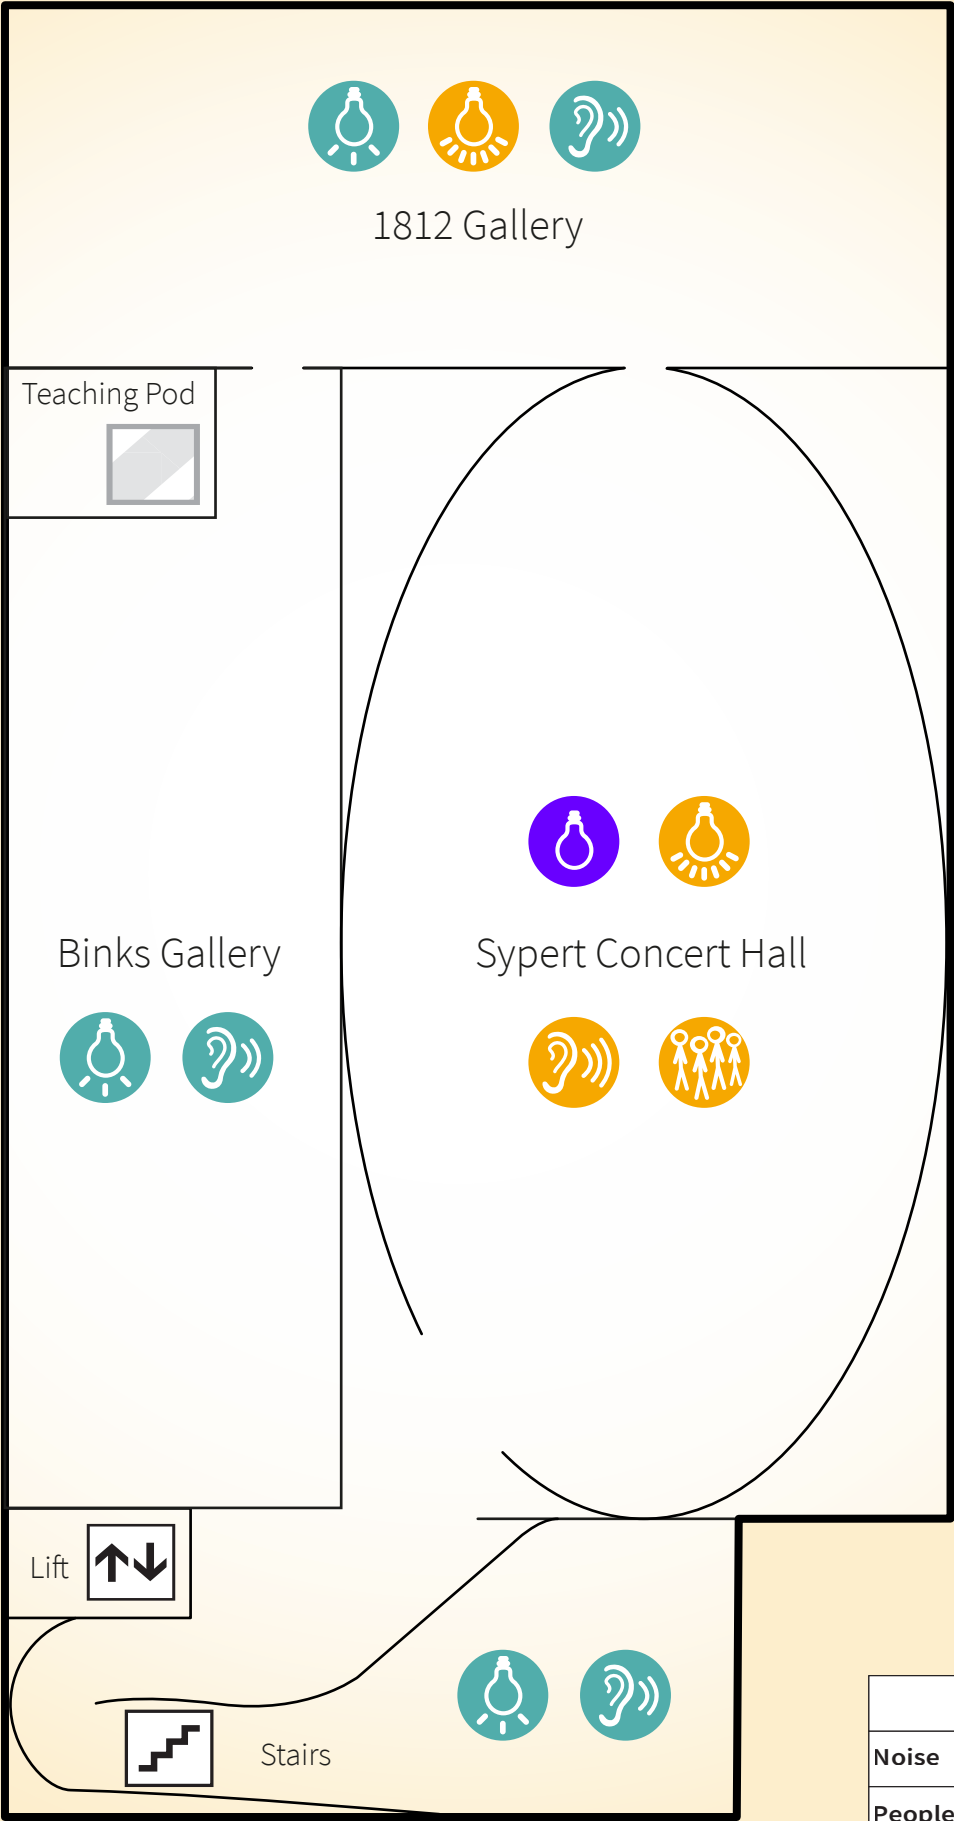

St Cecilia's Hall: First Floor

Good to know:

- The flooring is wooden which can often be creaky.
- There are bright spotlights throughout the gallery.
- There are wall-mounted lightboxes and bright white text boxes throughout.
- There may be volunteers leading talks and demonstrations: you are welcome to listen or continue exploring the galleries.
- You may hear noise from outside and from the Concert Hall.
- The Concert Hall is lit by overhead natural light.

Key

- Information Desk
- Toilet, Female
- Toilet, Male
- Toilet, Unisex
- Toilet, Accessible
- Stairs
- Lift
- Wheelchair Access
- Staff Area
- Way Out

	Low	Medium	High
Noise	Often Quiet	Some noise	Can be loud
People	Few people	Some people	Busy place
Lighting	Low lighting	Medium lighting	Bright lighting
Other	Visual stimulation	Strong smell	Staff

Sensory Map